Your destination

Västerås is a city in central Sweden on the shore of Lake Mälaren in the province of Västmanland, located about 100 kilometers west of Stockholm. It is the fifth largest city in Sweden with a population of around 128,000 people. Västerås is an industrial city, with a strong economy based on manufacturing and technology. The city is home to several major companies, including the headquarters of ABB Group, a global leader in electrification products. Västerås is also known for its cultural attractions, including several museums, parks, and lakes, as well as its historic Old Town, which features well-preserved medieval architecture. The city is also a popular destination for sports, with several professional sports teams and facilities for activities such as skiing, sailing, and golfing.

Getting to Västerås

Arlanda Airport is the main international airport in Sweden, located about 40 kilometers north of Stockholm. There are several options for getting from Arlanda to Västerås:

- Train: The quickest and most convenient way to get from Arlanda to Västerås is by train. Trains depart regularly from Arlanda Airport to Västerås and the journey takes about 1 hour.
- Bus: The center of Västerås is easily reachable using bus4you or FLiXBUS. The journey takes about 1 hour and 25 minutes.
- Taxi: You can take a taxi from Arlanda to Västerås, which takes about 40-60 minutes, depending on traffic.
- Car rental: Renting a car at Arlanda is another option, which allows you to drive to Västerås at your own pace.

Regardless of the means of transportation you choose, it is advisable to check the schedules and availability beforehand.
